Item, I give to as many of my sons -in-law as may be living at my decease also to my daughter-in-law Elizabeth W.Davis now of Valeach, a family Bible to be purchased by my executrix or Ex. as the case may be & presented with my name written on a blank leaf trusting & praying that this "Cods gift to man" & my gift to them may be the very means of reuniting us an unbroken family, where parting will be no more & there until in prasing Him who hath given us the victory through our blessed redeemer.

My desire is that the copy selected shall be the Pollygot Bible with reference and marginal readings & notes compiled by Justice Edwards such as are now used in our family for daily readings & comfort.

Shall may of my children die before I do in that event my will is that the portion to which their partents would have been entitled under my Will shall go to such children of the deceased parents, but should any of their children die childless than the portion of such child of children at death of the parent shall revert to the estate or be equally divided amongst the surviving heirs all also if the child or children of any of my children claiming under this Will die before arriving at age the portion, falling to such of my children, shall also be distributed equally amongst the others.

I do expressly declare & direct that the shares or portions of such of my daughters as above mentioned, who are now married or who may hereafter marry shall go to them & such of them, subject to their exclusive control during their lives & to their children after their death, free and discharged from all claim or debts or control of their respective husbands.

My intent being that all my Estate shall finally go the the benefit of my dear ohildren & grand children.

To my Son J. Lynn Davis, if living when he can conveniently & properly attend to it if not to every son-in-law. John A. H. Cunningham.

I give in trust 1/8 of my estate for the benefit of my daughter Katie R. Thomas & her issue if any surviving her and arive to legal age, or so long as either mother or children live subject to the same contingence as apply to the other portions.

The Trustee shall safely invest by taking ample security said trust fund and pay to my daughter Katie semi-annually during her life, the interest accruing on said investment, and should she have a child or children to survive her and become of age then the said portion shall be paid over to such child or children, at maturity by the trustee but should there be no such child or children to ingert then in that case (as in the others, the said portion of 1/8 shall be divided amongst the living claimant under this my Will, when said trust shall cease and end.

Should I advance money to either of my children or pay as security for either of my Sons; in-law, money at any time or my estate have to do so, such amounts in either case shall be a just charge, vs. the portion or share of such daughter or child or wife of said such husband.

I hold a judgment, in our Circuit Court vs. One John B. Thomas "in proper person" and also vs. said John B. Thomas as Ammr. of Extr, of one B. Lamar, amounting by this date to about one thousand dollars with int. which when collected may be applied to the payments of my just debts or divided equally amongst my heirs. Judge Maulsby can explain & C.

In case of the whole and half bloods so long in controversy I desire a Compromise and speedly settlement, see paper in my drawer in the large posket book for bills receipts &c,my portion to be added in adjusting for further information Vide Judge Maulsby or John Ritchie.

By reference to my large book in the back part of said Book on a sheet of paper it will be seen that there is due to a minor son of one of the heirs of the late Rej Baldwin $131.07 with int. at 4 per cent the amount then given on such deposits, now my Will
